

The Georgia Walks Summit brings transportation and public health professionals, community advocates and elected officials together to share best practices, make pedestrian safety a priority and build momentum for walkable communities. Concurrent tracks will make the summit relevant to diverse audiences and to towns and cities of all sizes.

Your registration gives you exclusive access to this packed schedule, including:

- Plenary and breakout sessions
- Walking workshops
- Meals, including continental breakfast and lunch

We're also offering team discounts. Join with elected officials, colleagues, advocates or people who work in other departments in your community to build a strong coalition of local support when you return home! Four for the price of three!
